1. Applicant's arguments related to the restriction requirement dated 26 February 2009 have been considered and are convincing and therefore this restriction requirement is dropped.

2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species with the corresponding claims are as follows:

Group I: nitrogen concentration estimation mechanism:

1. rate of pressure drop-claim 3;
2. pressure sensor detects pressure loss-claim 7;
3. pressure sensor detects pressure in fuel off-gas passage-claim 7;
4. hydrogen sensor detects hydrogen concentration-claim 7;
5. ultrasonic sensor-claim 7;
6. voltage monitor-claim 7;
7. lapsed period after performing purging-claim 8 and
8. purge valve for discharging fuel off-gas-claim 9.

Group II: discharge amount control mechanism:

1. decreases amount of discharged fuel off-gas-claim 4;
2. sets an open time of a purge valve-claim 6;
3. temperature of fuel cell-claim 11 and

4. time passed after discharge of fuel off-gas is started-claim 12.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from each of the above groups to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claims are generic: 1 and 10.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: each of the above listed species comprises materially different products and limitations that are not part of each of the other listed species.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John S. Maples whose telephone number is 571-272-1287. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 8:00-4:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Patrick Ryan can be reached on 571-272-1292. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
